Subject: Re: [FICKLE] Updated page on Joseph D. Fickel, born 1778

Hi Mary. Don't think I can be of any help to your specific question. Been away from this situation for several years But after a little searching in records etc. which have been packed away for several years I found some information I will send along. Much of it is even written on margins and the like.

Perry County, Ohio Tax List (R14T 13, Sec 2, 1820-1824.)

Rachel Barnet: Mother of Joseph Fickle
 Mary Dusenberry: Wife of Joseph: No dates

[Rachel Barnett 1797-1892
 m. John Fickle 1808-1880]

John Fickle: Son of Joseph Fickle. Have date of death for John as December 10, 1829.

Children of John:

Joshua

Eli: My records show he was married to Catharine Madden

Dec.

21 1854

The following have not been verified.

* Benjamin: Two daughters, Rachel Vansky and Catherine Kilpatrick

Jonathan: May have been a cousin of John.

Isaac: Cousin or brother of John?

Benjamin Fickle also was on the Perry County Tax list.

Sorry that has such an amaturer approach but it is all I can do I quess.

Thank you for your inquiry a few month ago. I am settled in a very nice 55+ community but I don't think it will ever feel like home. Still miss my bride of 58 years terribly but it is getting better I think. Too darn many sick people around here and no kids and I miss that.

My very best to you. Burt born and died here.

 Mrs. Isabella S. Gunn. She was born in Logan County in 1811. Mr. Given is the father of five children, all by his first wife, viz.: Eliza J., wife of Squire Cooney; Mary H., wife of Thomas J. McDonald; Alexander F. and two deceased.—Daniel and Rebecca.

Isaac Holt was probably the next settler in this township. He came here from near "Little Sandusky" about 1829-30, and settled on land now owned by John Hineuan, where he remained about three or four years, then removed to Iowa.

David Poe, a native of Kentucky, born in Breckinridge County, but early emigrated to Ohio, was married in Brown County to his wife Elizabeth, who was born in Ireland, but who, while young, emigrated to America with her parents and settled in Washington County, Penn., where her parents died, after which she came to Brown County, Ohio. After their marriage, they removed to Kentucky, thence to Ross County, Ohio, and from there to Fayette County, and thence, about 1831, removed to Hardin County and settled on land now owned by John Miller, where he remained till quite aged, when he removed to the village of Round Head, where he died. He was twice married and was the father of the following children: William, Andrew, Barbara, Robert Allen, John, Stephen, Genova and one daughter, who married George G. Moore and died young. Several of the children, now quite advanced in years, are still residents of this township, and are among the reliable and worthy citizens. Of these, R. A. Poe, in 1815, married Jane Breese, who was born in Logan County in 1824, a daughter of Robert and Alida Breese. She was a worthy member of the Methodist Church since 1854 up to the time of her death, February 11, 1882. To them were born seven children, of whom five now survive—Lydia E., wife of E. Haskfield; George H.; Genova, wife of L. H. Mahan; Anna, wife of John W. Thomas, and Griffith B.; Lizzie and Emma are deceased. On September 10, 1882, Mr. Poe married for his second wife, Miss Margaret Shaffer, a native of this county.

Another settler of this period was William McDonald, after whom it is said the township was named.

Jacob Fuls was born in Pendleton County, Va., February 3, 1794; emigrated to Ross County, Ohio, where he was united in marriage with Anna Hesser in 1820; thence he removed to Fayette County, and thence, in April, 1832, he removed to Hardin County and settled in the woods of McDonald Township on land now owned by John Faurot. There were then only three settlers within a distance of five miles, the closest neighbors, aided in other directions it was much further to any settler, and here he resided till his death, August 31, 1868; his wife died January 15, 1872, aged seventy-three years. Mr. Fuls' aged mother came to this wilderness with him and died January 27, 1836. Mr. Fuls was a plain pioneer farmer, honest and upright, a kind neighbor and a good citizen and a devoted Methodist. His children were as follows: Elizabeth, Margaret, Philip, Mary Ann, Amelia, John, Anna C., Jacob, Samuel, Phoebe and Simon P.

James Hayes came here from Logan County about 1832-33, and settled on land now owned by Joseph Zahler, but resided here only a few years and removed to Illinois.

Michael Fickel settled on land where the White Schoolhouse now stands, about 1833, but resided there only about three or four years and moved away.

Ezekiel Skorer settled where J. H. Fields now owns and resides, about 1832, where a few years after he died and was buried in the Fuls Burying Ground. Of his children, some died and the others all moved away.

William Connell, who came here from Fayette County, Ohio, settled on land now owned by Joseph Zahler about 1834-35; remained here only a few years and moved away.

Thomas Coil also came here from Fayette County about 1835, but remained only about two years and moved away.

William Hemphill was born in Ross County, Ohio, in 1826. His father, Andrew Hemphill, was born in Kentucky in 1794, emigrating with his parents to Ross County in 1800, where he married his wife, Anna, who was a native of that county, born in 1802. They removed to Highland County, Ohio, and, about 1833, came with his family to Hardin County and settled in this township, where his wife died in 1840. Subsequently he married Mary Riley, and finally removed to Logan County, where he remained till the death of his second wife, after which he returned to this township and resided till his death in 1879. William was but a child when brought to this county by his parents, grew to manhood under the sturdy influences of pioneer life, and was united in marriage with Margaret Poe, who was born in Wayne County in 1827. Mr. Hemphill has now been a resident here for about half a century, and has been one of the township's tried, faithful and best citizens. He is the father of the following children: Joseph S., John D., James, Martha A., Lizzie, Mary F. and William S.

Samuel Bell settled on the place now owned by Mr. E. Wells about 1835, where he resided till his death. He was a good substantial citizen, and served as one of the early justices of the Peace. John Bell, a brother to Samuel, came here at the same date and located on land adjoining his brother on the west, but after a few years' residence moved away.

Martin Bruen came here about 1835-36 and settled near Mr. Fuls; then he settled on land now owned by George Littleton.

Jacob Zahler came here with his father (a native of Germany) about 1836, and settled on the place where he still resides. Mr. Zahler is one of the true pioneers, an excellent neighbor and most worthy citizen; has filled many of the township offices, and is now serving as one of its Trustees.

John Fuls, a brother of the above-mentioned Jacob Fuls, was born in Ross County, Ohio; removed to Fayette County, where he married Mary Miller, and about 1834-35, came to this county and settled on the place now owned by Mr. Cameron, where he resided till his death, February 13, 1867, aged fifty-six years. He was an honest man, a good citizen and a devoted member of the United Brethren Church. He was the father of the following children: Elizabeth, Martin, Mary Ann, Sarah, John, Catherine, Arnilda, Lydia, Ann, Sienda, George and Amanda.

Benjamin Rightmire came here from Morgan County, Ohio, about 1834-35 and settled on land now owned by John Flynn. He married Martha Holt, and they remained residents here until their death. They were interred in the Fuls Cemetery. He was a worthy citizen, a religious man and a member of the United Brethren Church. Their children were William H., Mary, Martha, Sarah and Nancy.

Moses Yansky came here from Ticking County, Ohio, about 1834-35 and settled where Mr. McConnell now lives. Subsequently he moved on to land on the Setola Marsh, where he died in 1862. He married Michael Fickel, by whom he had the following children: Perry, Silas, Jane, George, Elizabeth, Isaac, Michael, Zachariah and Lancela. Mr. Yansky was a man of integrity, possessing the confidence of his neighbors, and a worthy member of the United Brethren Church.

John Hatfield was a native of Maryland, but with his family emigrated to rather than Daniel

Alanson Packard, himself, married Nancy Fickle in June, 1824, and there is little doubt she was related to the Fickles who settled in the southern part of Bucyrus township in 1823, a daughter of Daniel Fickle, who came here from Marion county.

Since 1845 the following have been the justices of the peace of Dallas township: Andre Corn, 1845; William Hoover, 1847-50; Daniel Swigart, 1848; Ezra Huntly, 1850; Isaac N. Munson, 1851; Samuel P. Shaw, 1852; James Huftv, 1854-57; S. D. Welsh, 1860-63; Henry Martin, 1863-66; William H. Churchill, 1866; Caleb McHenry, 1869-72-74-77-92-95; R. H. Rogers, 1869; E. B. Monnett, 1872; John Monnett, 1873; Barnhart Sayler, 1876-79; A. M. Zook, 1880-83; Otis Brooks, 1882-86; H. Q. Johnston, 1886; George Whiteamire, 1888-91; Marcus Hoover, 1888-89; William Petry, 1889-98-01; J. M. Quaintance, 1894; Isaac Shearer, 1897; Ira E. Quaintance, 1902-03-06-09; and P. S. Hinkel, 1905-09.

In 1892, when the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking railroad was built it passed through the center of Dallas township, and a town was laid out by Mervin J. Monnett, and named after himself and the many representatives of the Monnett family who had been and were prominent in that section. The little village started well. A large elevator was erected by Mr. Monnett; a store was started, and on October 25, 1893, William A. Heinlen was appointed the first postmaster; he has been succeeded by the following: G. J. Feltis, November 30, 1897; D. L. Parcher, December 23, 1901; William Monnett, June 5, 1906; F. G. Smith, April 5, 1910; C. S. Wert, June 23, 1911.

Three quarters of a mile west of Monnett is the Bucyrus and Marion electric road, with a station to accommodate the people of that village.

Dear Lawrence,

Thanks for the additional information you are sending my way. You are very flattering in praise of my documentation. As careful as I try to be I find transcribing errors and failure to record sources. I am so grateful to have some one I can discuss these Fickle families that I have not been able to connect up in any way, especially those right here in (Adams) PA. Before I forget - thanks for the good copy of George S. Fickles obit. (my grandfather)

I believe it's the Marion Co. Hist. that states that Nancy Fickle was the dau. of Daniel Fickle. Nancy marr. Alanson Packard in June 1824. They lived near Latimerville in the Marion Co - part of Scott Twp & he was J. P. for many years.

Nancy Fickle
Supposedly: Nancy Fickle was the dau of David Fickle -

Nancy Fickle married Alanson Packard in June 1824. They lived near Latimerville in the Marion Co. part of Scott Twp. & he was the Justice of Peace for many years.

1897; Ira E. Quaintance, 1902-03-06-09; and P. S. Hinkel, 1905-09.

atomies and Senecas, then residing ale his headquarters at what was then known as 'Negrotown,' now in Wyandot County. As soon as war was declared, the Indians became very uneasy. They were uncertain about what to do. The Canadians were using all their arts to induce them to join the British, while Gov. Meigs desired to have them remain neutral or join the forces of the United States. The Governor ordered Capt. Drake to remove the Indians to a place called Zanesfield, in what is now Logan County. This occurred in 1811. The Indians met him in council, concerning the matter, and sat in deep consultation about forty hours without leaving their seats. They finally agreed to go, and in two hours were on their way. They numbered about six hundred. They remained at Zanesfield a few months, but becoming dissatisfied, returned to Upper Sandusky.

A chief by the name of Zarhe, or Crane, seemed to have great influence among the Wyandots. He was regarded as being friendly to the United States. After their return, the Governor appointed two Commissioners—Solomon Smith and Moses Bixby, of Delaware—to meet the head-chiefs at Upper Sandusky, to obtain a grant for a new road from Lower Sandusky to the old Greenville boundary line, in the southern part of Marion County.
The chiefs granted the request, and the road was to be sixty feet wide.
The Governor then appointed three Commissioners, Bell, Bair and Van Clief, to run and open the road. The chain-carriers and blazers were Capt.
William S. Drake, Maj. John Bush and Jacob Foos. This road passed through what is now Marion Village, and was known as the 'war road.'

BY HENRY PETERS.

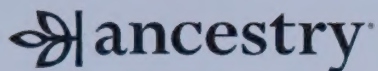

"April 1, 1820, I left Fairfield County, to find a home in Sandusky Plains, where land was said to be cheap. On the third or fourth day, I arrived at D. Drake's, on the boundary line. The first family I found on the road was Jacob Idleman, tented at Slab Camp, and he was alone, putting up a small cabin. Next was Van Horn; then David Tipton; Alex Berry, just south of where Marion now stands; James Murray, just south of the fork of the road a mile north of Marion; Hugh O'Harra, just north of that fork; Daniel Fickle, south of Rocky Fork; Mr. Caldwell; Mr. Swinnerton, who had just arrived where the family (January, 1878) now lives; Mr.
Hackathorn; Jacob Coon; Vedersforth, just south of where Little Sandusky now is; Mr. Armstrong, opposite where T. Reber now lives, then the block-house at Upper Sandusky. Here James Whittaker kept a tavern, with plenty of Indians all around. I stayed here two days, and found that I had passed through the New Purchase—the land here was a reservation.
I then returned to Caldwell's, who was erecting a blacksmith shop as I went up. I worked for him one month and then returned to Fairfield, to wait for the land sale in August.

"In the spring of 1820, the New Purchase was one township, attached to Delaware County.

"The first election was held at the house of James Murray, a mile north of where Marion now stands. He and David Tipton were the two Justices of the Peace. Daniel Fickle, John Green and James Lambert were the Trustees. At this election we gave forty-eight votes.

"At the land sale, in August, at Delaware, I bought the eighty acres of land on which Van Horn's cabin stood in October. I built my blacksmith shop, and took up my residence with Van Horn. Shortly afterward, he moved away, and in January, February and March the first school was taught in the cabin he had built. Fifteen scholars attended.

Good Morning! Yes, Mary Etta is our cousin. She is my Aunt Cassie's granddaughter. George, my grandfather is her great grandfather, Isaac H. our next ancestor back. Mary Etta and Frank go to Florida for the winter. When the newsletter said she helped with the, whatever that fair or some affair where they had a gene. booth I was surprised as I thought they had already left for FL. I get both Williams Co. and Defiance Co. Newsletters. About the Slaymaker books, I have Captive Mansion and the 1969 book by Henry Coarchran Slaymaker 11, and Clyde L. Groff. Let me check in the local libraries to see if they have the 1909 book. I suspect they do. Sorry to hear that Nona & Dave's trip home wasn't all that great. Mine was much better. Had larger planes and much more room. So you and your baby had an altercation. Guess she was a bit put out with you for going away and leaving her. Hope your hand is mending well and the two of you have made up. When I looked in the Slaymaker book I found this scrap of paper with the following info on it: Mrs. Mark Wright - Slaymaker - 11009 Territorial Dr. Burnsville, MN 55337 Mrs. Marietta Watson 48 East Oregon, Phoenix, AZ. Anna Slaymaker, wife of John Kinzer bur. at Wolf Cem. Anna (Slaymaker) Kinzer born 1734 died 18 Dec. 1799. Maryland. Buried Wolf Cem. I just stopped and called gene friend May to see if she knew where Wolf Cem. is located and she suggested I call friend Chris which I will do tonight. I have no idea where I got this bit of info. For all I know you may have sent it to me. Scraps of paper are really my downfall. I have them everywhere. I'm really trying to do better and indicate where I get my info. Not easy after all these years of being so sloppy. Well, with that I'll send this and get something off to Caroline. I really need to send her things more often. I know I have a lot that has not been sent and I was glad to hear that she doesn't mind if I send something that I have already sent before. Lunch time so will launch this message westward. Love, Ro.

Hi, it's me again. Hope I have better luck transmitting. I believe you get the newltr from Defiance Co. but just in case did you see the Ancestor chart from Mary Etta Horvath, Culler, Issure 4 last. Looks like your cousin, will forward if you didn't see it. Let me know which Slaymaker book you have, I have 1909 by Henry Cochran Slaymaker, if you want it will send it. Do you have any other than Captives Mansion? Nona call few days ago. Guess their trip home wasn't the best, at least Dave said he would not ride those shuttles again. It was mentioned they drive up here the day before next trip and stay over, then we all fly together. Sounds good to me. I hope I am making sense, my left hand is wrapped in bandages because I had a confrontation with Missey and one of her teeth punched a blood vessel, so now I'm on antibiotics and am getting sleepy. All this was the first thing this morn so missed Stretchercize class, etc. Coz Helen
